DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. Claims 1-19 are currently under examination, wherein claim 1 is currently amended in applicant's amendment filed on June 15, 2007. The applicant's affirmation of the provisional election of the Invention of I, claims 1-19 without traversal in the same amendment is acknowledged. The previous claims 20-34 have been cancelled.

Status of Previous Rejections

2. The previous rejections of claims 1-19 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as stated in the Office action of April 6, 2007 are maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bohm et al. (WO 03/033192 A2) in view of Whitlock (US 6,382,318) as stated in the Office action of April 6, 2007.

With respect to the amended features of the instant claim 1, they do not change the scope of the claim, therefore, the reasons for the rejection as stated in the Office action of April 6, 2007 are applied properly herein.

Response to Arguments

4. The applicant's arguments filed on June 5, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicant argues that Whitlock ('318) does not deal with the production of open-porous body, therefore, the teaching of Whitlock ('318) is not relevant and the combination of Whitlock ('318) and Bohm et al. ('192 A2) does not render the instant invention obvious to one skilled in the art. In response, the examiner notes that the arguments of the counsel cannot be relied upon as evidence. The rejections are based on prior art's broad disclosure rather than preferred embodiments. As stated in the Office action of April 6, 2007, Whitlock ('318) teaches a method for shaping a porous body into a desired shape (col. 5, lines 18-23), while Bohm et al. ('192 A2) teach a process for producing a sintered porous body (page 4, lines 6-30). The teachings of Whitlock ('318) and Bohm et al. are apparently relevant. As stated in the Office action of April 6, 2007, the teaching of Whitlock ('318) meets all the shaping step limitations in the instant claims 1 and 4-12, which are lacking from the teaching of Bohm et al. ('192 A2). Therefore the combination of Whitlock ('318) and Bohm et al. ('192 A2) with a appropriate motivation as stated in the Office action of April 6, 2007 is proper and renders the instant invention obvious to one skilled in the art.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1742

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
